Hello NFCS Family:

This year we have elected to begin a One Book One Community summer reading program. All high school students and staff are expected to read the selected novel and to be prepared to engage in planned activities and discussions when school resumes in August. The summer reading is a required activity, which has a .5 earned credit. My apologies for the late notice, but we needed to ensure enough copies would be available for shipment in time.

We are excited to present The Other Wes Moore: One Name Two Fates as our inaugural selection:

"The Other Wes Moore is a narrative non-fiction story that chronicles the lives of two young African-American men that share the same name: Wes Moore. The author was inspired to write this story because of this fact and their similar start in Baltimore, Maryland. While one Wes Moore was sentenced to life in prison, the author Wes Moore became a Rhodes Scholar and a best-selling author. Moore's purpose in writing the story is to examine how two people with such similar backgrounds can end up with completely different lives."

The book will be available for purchase in the high school office beginning Monday June 11th, at a discounted cost of $12.00. Thank you in advance for supporting this important literary initiative.

Sincerely,

Charles Baltimore
High School Principal
